WHAT TO WATCH FOR IN 2017

- Coming off a 25-9 (13-7) season in 2016, the Spartans are one of just three Big Ten programs to finish .500 or better in Big Ten play over the last six seasons – Penn State and Nebraska are the other two.

- The Big Ten again promises to be the pacesetter in Division I volleyball this season, despite losing the most 2016 All-Americans (9) to graduation of any conference in the country. The Big Ten returns 17 2016 All-Americans, six more than the Big 12 (11) and seven more than the Pac-12 and SEC (10 each).

- Head Coach Cathy George enters her 13th season at Michigan State and 31st overall with a 597-389 overall mark and is 232-163 while at MSU. She ranks 22nd among active coaches for total wins in NCAA Division I volleyball.

- George needs three wins to hit the 600-victory plateau, and 13 to become the all-time winningest coach in Spartan history. Chuck Erbe won 244 games in his 12-year tenure (1993-2004); George is 232-163 at MSU in 12 seasons.

- MSU's next victory will be the 800th in program history. The Spartans are 799-692-18 (.536) in 43 seasons of varsity action.

- Michigan State shattered single-game and a pair of single-season attendance records last season. MSU had a program best 6,838 fans for Jam Jenison on Nov. 12 vs. Michigan, and ranked sixth in the country in both total attendance (53,895) and average attendance (2,994), both program bests. Before the 2017 pre-season camp began, MSU had established a new program mark with more than 1,000 season tickets sold.

- The Spartans are coming off their 19th overall NCAA Tournament appearance in 2016, and earned their sixth consecutive first round victory in the tournament – the longest streak in school history.

- MSU finished the 2016 season at No. 19 in the final AVCA national poll.

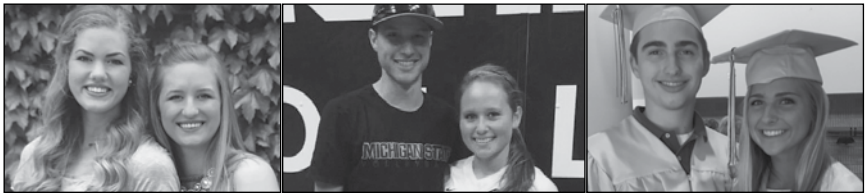
- The Spartans return three AVCA All-America selections: Senior Alyssa Garvelink (Second Team, 2016), Redshirt senior Autumn Bailey (Honorable Mention, 2013, 2014, 2016), and Senior Rachel Minarick (Honorable Mention, 2014).

- The Spartans did a 10-day foreign tour of Italy and Slovenia May 25-June 3. Four of MSU's incoming freshmen enrolled early and were able to participate in the trip, giving MSU both two weeks of practice in advance of the trip and some high-level competition to prepare for the 2017 season.

- Senior Holly Toliver participated in the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team- Minneapolis, which is part of USA Volleyball's High Performance pipeline and is considered a second tryout for the U.S. Women's National Team ... As a part of Team Red, led her team in the final round-robin match with 12 kills on 19 swings without an error (.630), and in the final hit .430 with 15 kills, two blocks, and a pair of aces.

- Redshirt senior Brooke Kranda Was MSU's representative on the Big Ten Volleyball Foreign Tour, competing in Czech Republic, Slovenia, Italy and Austria. Averaged 2.0 kills and 0.52 blocks per set and hit .250 over the eight matches, leading the squad with 13 aces (0.57 per set) and averaging 0.91 digs per set. Last year, Kranda established a new school record with nine service aces in the match at Purdue (Oct. 29)

- Among MSU's six freshmen are Corunna product and Michigan Miss Volleyball Meredith Norris and Oregon, Ohio native Jamye Cox, who both have extensive experience with USA Volleyball's High Performance program and were first team Under Armour All-Americans as prep players. Norris (No. 25), Alyssa Chronowski (No. 30) and Cox (No. 40) are all among PrepVolleyball's Senior Aces for 2017.



Three Spartans have fraternal twins - (L-R) Alyssa Chronowski's sister, Abigail, attends Purdue, Sarah Washegesic's brother Alec is a baseball player at Kalamazoo Valley Community College, while Jake McLean is a sophomore at San Diego State.

• The Spartan roster is 17 players strong. MSU returns four starters and its starting libero from a year ago, welcoming back 11 letterwinners (12 players) from 2016. MSU's largest classes are the seniors (7) and freshmen (6). There are two each sophomores and juniors.

• The Spartans co-captains are Alyssa Garvelink and Rachel Minarick. They were elected by team vote.

• The Spartan senior class was the No. 6 recruiting class in the country in 2014, consisting of Alyssa Garvelink, Rachel Minarick, Abby Monson, and Holly Toliver. The class grew as Brooke Kranda and Megan Tompkins, part of the No. 7-ranked class from 2013, redshirted their true freshman season, and again after transfer Autumn Bailey missed the 2015 season with injury and she was granted a medical hardship waiver.

• The Spartan players have siblings sprinkled throughout college volleyball. Maddie Haggerty's younger sister, Molly, is a sophomore and 2016 All-America at Wisconsin, and her older sister Meghan was an All-America at Nebraska. Brooke Kranda's sister, Stephanie, was a four-year letterwinner at Butler who graduated in 2014. Jamye Cox's older sister Ryann plays at Bowling Green. Lauren Swartz's oldest sister, Sarah, played four years at Allegheny College, while middle sister Erin is a senior at American University - and the sisters will face off this fall when their teams meet at the Active Ankle Challenge in Gainesville, Fla.

• MSU's roster is plush with second-generation collegiate athletes. Deb Minarick was a volleyball player at Nebraska-Omaha, and MaryBeth Kranda played basketball at Notre Dame. Mary Midgette was a member of Saginaw Valley State's NAIA National Championship softball team in 1989. Jamye Cox's dad, James, was a basketball letterwinner at TriState University.

Three players come from a pair of college athletes: Holly Toliver's father, Paul, played basketball at Hope College before transferring and earning his degree at MSU, while her mom, Carolyn, played basketball and volleyball at GVSU.. Sarah Washegesics's mom, Megan was a volleyball player, and her dad, Don, a baseball player, both at Aquinas College. Meredith Norris' parents both competed at Alma College: Bob played basketball and her mother, Nicole, ran track.

Before arriving at Michigan State, Cathy George had already established herself as one of the more well-respected coaches in the sport. Her dozen years on the MSU sideline has seen the Spartans ascend to one of the elite programs in the country. With six consecutive NCAA appearances under her belt (including two trips to the sweet 16), three returning All-Americans, and a pair of top-10 recruiting classes dotting her current roster, George is positioning MSU for another strong run in 2017.

George currently a career record of 597-389 and is 232-163 while at MSU. She ranks 22nd among active coaches for total wins in NCAA Division I volleyball, and ranks among the top 80 coaches all-time with a career .607 winning percentage. With 13 wins, she will become the winningest head coach in MSU history, and needs three more to reach the 600-victory plateau.

The head coach, with a dozen years of tenure at Michigan State, has helped MSU to perhaps its longest stretch of sustained success. MSU's streak of six consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances is the second-longest in school history and the third most active consecutive appearances in the Big Ten, behind Penn State and Nebraska. In addition, MSU, Nebraska, and Penn State are the only teams to finish .500 or better in Big Ten play over the last six seasons (2011-16).

While the on-court success has continued to climb, the program has maintained its tradition of excellence in the classroom and community as well. George's players include 66 Academic All-Big Ten selections and 16 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars over 12 seasons.

Under George's tutelage, her program's involvement in community activities has also helped grow MSU's fan base. The Spartans had 16 regular-season games at Jenison Field House in 2016, where the Spartans are routinely a top-10 ranked attendance draw. MSU capped its home season with a school-record 6,838 fans on Nov. 12 vs. Michigan, averaged 2,994 fans per match at home (sixth nationally) and its total attendance of 53,895 also shattered venue attendance records as well - giving MSU its 22nd straight year of ranking in the top 25 of average attendance.

In 2016, MSU finished the season with a 25-9 record, the most regular-season victories (24) for a Spartan team since 1996. The 25 victories also tied the most under George at the helm, while 13 Big Ten victories is tied for the fourth-most Conference victories in a season in program history, and the most under George. MSU was the overall No. 9 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosted for the just the fifth time in school history and the first time since 2003.

Junior Alyssa Garvelink was named a First Team All-Big Ten selection and also a Second Team AVCA All-American, while both Autumn Bailey and Rachel Minarick were Honorable Mention picks by both organizations. In addition, Allyssah Fitterer earned her fourth consecutive All-Region honor, capturing the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award as well. The Spartans placed six athletes on Academic All-Big Ten teams, and Minarick was a CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree.

In 2015, the Spartans overcame a host of frustrating injuries to maintain its fifth consecutive season of .500 or better in the Big Ten, going 19-14 and 10-10 in Conference play. The Spartans faced a showdown with the nation's No. 1 team in the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season, and fell to Washington in Seattle, 3-1. In addition to team success, the Spartans also had high-achieving individual efforts. Both Chloe Reinig and Allyssah Fitterer were AVCA All-North selections, with Reinig also earning an Honorable Mention All-Big Ten nod. The Spartans also maintained their high standards in the classroom, with seven Academic All-Big Ten selections and three Big Ten Distinguished Scholars. George won her 200th match at Michigan State on Oct. 14, 2015, when the Spartans downed visiting Maryland at Jenison Field House.

Continuing MSU's history of exceptional success both on and off the court, senior Maggie Halloran earned the Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship at the conclusion of the 2015-16 academic year- she was the top female GPA recipient at the Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS) Academic Gala and maintained a perfect 4.0 GPA over her four seasons.

The Spartans boasted three Honorable Mention All-America selections in 2014 (tying it's program best), and pushed top overall seed Stanford before falling in four sets to the Cardinal in the NCAA Tournament. It was the fourth straight NCAA bid for MSU, only the second time in school history the Spartans accomplished that feat. During the season, senior Kori Moster cemented her spot in Big Ten volleyball lore, finishing third all-time in Big Ten history in career digs, while sophomore Chloe Reinig and freshman Rachel Minarick also were honored with post-season honors by both the AVCA and the Big Ten.

Every season, George's teams have attracted rapidly-growing crowds to Jenison Field House, ranking in the top-25 in Division I attendance in each of the last 20 years. The Spartans ranked eighth nationally in average attendance, (2,872), as 37,333 fans took in a volleyball match at Jenison Field House in 2015, the 11th highest total among Division I programs. The Spartans have set new attendance records in each of the last four seasons, with MSU setting a new single-game attendance mark at Jenison Field House in 2014, drawing 6,218 fans for an Oct. 3 match vs. archrival Michigan.

The 2013 season was a banner year for the Spartans, who advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second consecutive season and boasted three All-America selections. MSU went 11-1 in the pre-Big Ten portion of its schedule, capturing the Spartan Invitational and Butler Invitational Tournament titles and defeating the NCAA runner-up in 2012, No. 12 Oregon. The team then started the Big Ten season 6-0 and was ranked as high as fifth in the country; the Spartans opened the conference slate with an upset of No. 1 Penn State (3-1) on its home court, and capped its 6-0 start with a 3-1 home win over then-No. 9 Nebraska. In the NCAA Tournament, MSU downed Ohio and host No. 17 Kentucky in the first weekend, drawing No. 2 Penn State in the round of 16; MSU won the first set, but fell to the eventual National Champion Nittany Lions by a 3-1 score.

The individual accolades poured in for MSU over the course of the season. Junior libero Kori Moster earned her second straight Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honor, was an All-America selection, and was one of 12 players selected by USA Volleyball for the U.S. Collegiate National Team to tour China in June 2014. Lauren Wicinski completed her career with All-America honors for the fourth season in her career, and was a unanimous First Team All-Big Ten selection. Classmate Alexis Mathews earned her first-ever All-Big Ten accolades and was an honorable mention All-America pick, while earning a spot in the USA Volleyball training block in the spring of 2014. Meanwhile, co-captain Kristen Kelsay (now an assistant coach with the program) was an Academic All-America selection, captured the Gwendolyn Norrell Community Service & Leadership Award at the Student-Athlete Support Services Academic Gala for excelling in the field of community service and outreach, then won both the Chester Brewer Leadership Award as well as the Dr. James Feurig Achievement Award (honoring dedication, honesty, academic achievement, and perseverance), two of MSU's major athletic awards, at the end of the 2013-14 academic year. In addition, she was named the Detroit Athletic Club Female College Athlete of the Year as well as the recipient of a Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship.

MSU's freshman class, which was ranked seventh nationally in the pre-season, saw an immediate impact from Chloe Reinig, who was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, while classmate Allyssah Fitterer was an NCAA All-Regional team selection.

In 2012, the Spartans reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season and advanced to the Regional Semifinals for the second time in five years. MSU opened the tournament with a 3-2 win over No. 18 San Diego and then upset defending national champion UCLA on its home floor, 3-1, in-route to the Sweet 16. The Spartans opened the season on a 12-match win streak that included four in-season tournament titles. George won her 500th match at Iowa, and the Spartans swept Michigan on its home floor. In November, Michigan State won six consecutive Big Ten matches, the best streak in program history since 1998. During that stretch, the Spartans upset No. 4 Nebraska 3-2, defeating a top-5 opponent for the first time since 1996. MSU followed that with a 3-1 win at No. 10 Minnesota, winning back-to-back matches over top-10 teams for the first time since 1995. Kori Moster earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and was also named All-Big Ten Honorable Mention. Junior outside hitter Lauren Wicinski was named to the 16-member All-Big Ten team and Halle Peterson was named to the All-Freshman team. It was also the first time since 1995 that two Spartans were named AVCA All-Americans in the same season. Wicinski received second-team honors and Moster earned honorable mention accolades.

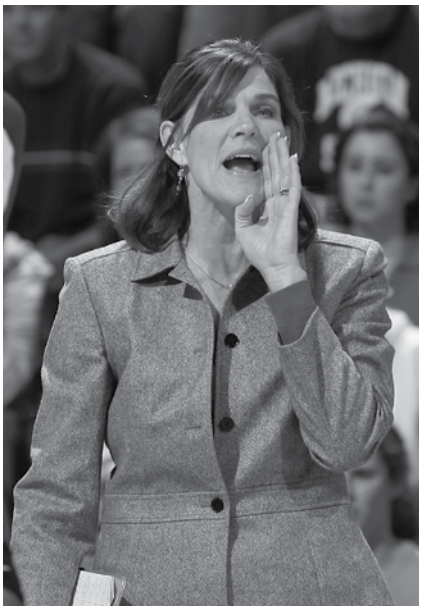
The Spartans made their way back to the NCAA Tournament in 2011, the ninth trip for George and her fourth at the helm of MSU. Michigan State started the season with six straight wins and two tournament titles, closing out the non-conference schedule with an 11-1 record. Rathje, one of the most decorated players in program history, was recognized as a third-team AVCA All-American and was a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten First Team for the second straight season. Fellow senior Kyndra Abron was also named to the All-Big Ten team as an honorable mention and was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team for the second straight season along with Alexis Mathews.



The 2010 season saw the Green and White face one of the toughest schedules in the nation, as it played two of the 2009 NCAA semifinal teams over the course of the season. The Spartans closed out the 2010 campaign by winning four of their final six matches, highlighted by an impressive 3-0 win over then-No. 19 Michigan on Senior Night at the Breslin Center, before a record-setting crowd of 6,824. As a result of the 3-0 win, MSU regained the "State Pride Flag" for the first time since 2006. Redshirt junior Jenilee Rathje became the 17th player in program history to amass 1,000-career kills as she earned unanimous first team All-Big Ten honors as well as being named an AVCA All-Mideast Region honorable mention selection. Kyndra Abron was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team while freshman Alexis Mathews was an honorable mention selection.

In 2009, the Spartans won their first 12 matches of the season, the third-best start to a year all-time and the best since the 1976 season. Along the way to the third NCAA Tournament appearance in the last four seasons, the Green and White posted upset wins over then-No. 12 Southern California and then-No. 12 Illinois in the B1G home opener. Kyndra Abron was an Honorable mention AVCA All-America, and also was just the third Spartan to earn All-Big Ten honors as a sophomore.

After losing 64% of the total offense from 2007, George was able to bring in a recruiting class which ranked No. 7 (at the time the best in MSU history) to help shoulder some of the void left by the graduating class. That recruiting class helped George compile a 15-16 overall record in 2008, despite playing five freshmen at a time for most of the season. George spent the spring of 2008 coaching the USA A2 Red team to the USA Adult Open Championship. The USA A2 Red Team topped the University of Washington's Huskies VBC team, 3-1, in Atlanta. George's A2 Red Team took home the gold, while the Blue team finished with the bronze. This was George's second stint with USA Volleyball, after serving as an assistant coach for the US team at the 1999 World University Games.

George guided the Spartans to the NCAA Regional Semifinals and a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten in 2007, going 21-14 overall. The Spartans entered postseason play in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2002-03. Under George's guidance, senior Ashley Schatzle became the Spartans' seventh AVCA All-American.

George guided MSU to the 2006 NCAA Tournament in just her second year at the helm of the Spartan program. George led a rebuilding Spartan squad to a 19-12 overall record, including a 10-10 mark in Big Ten play. The Green and White made its first trip to postseason play since the 2003 campaign. Ashley Schatzle earned All-Big Ten honors while Katie Johnson repeated as an Honorable Mention All-Big Ten pick, and competed with the U.S. Women's National Volleyball A2 Program during the summer of 2007. Vanessa King garnered 2006 All-Big Ten Freshman Team accolades.

In George's first year as head coach in December 2004, and her first Spartan team in 2005 finished the season with a 12-18 record, going 5-15 in conference action. Katie Johnson earned All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honors.

Prior to her arrival at Michigan State, George spent 11 years guiding the Western Michigan University program, where she compiled a 185-139 record. Taking over the reins at WMU prior to the 1994 season, George's Broncos qualified for eight consecutive MAC Tournaments beginning with the 1997 campaign, and her Bronco squad made back-to-back MAC Tournament title match appearances in 1999 and 2000, capturing the title in 2000. George reached the 300-win mark in 2000, and was named the MAC Coach of the Year that same season after guiding the Broncos to the MAC title and NCAA Tournament

George's student-athletes at WMU earned all-conference and national honors while enjoying academic success. Sixteen players earned academic all-conference honors during her time at Western Michigan, while four players were named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team. On the court, George recruited high-caliber student-athletes, as three WMU players trained with various U.S. national teams. In 1999, two players were honored with the chance to compete with the Pan Am Games Training Team, while another Bronco was selected to the 2001 U.S. National A2 team. Western Michigan's success under George led to increased attendance, as the Broncos led the MAC in total attendance in eight of her 11 seasons.

From 1989-93, George was the head coach at Texas-Arlington and led UTA to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Tournaments, with a school-record third-place national finish in 1989. With the Mavs, she became the first woman to coach in the NCAA Division I Final Four (1989) and she earned Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors three times (1989, 1990, `92) as she posted a record of 93-74 in her five seasons. George's teams won Southland Conference titles in 1989, 1990 and 1992, were 37-4 in conference play (.902), and finished with a 10-2 record in postseason competition during her tenure.

George got her start as a collegiate coach at North Dakota State in 1987-88, leading the Bison to an 87-11 (.888) record in her two seasons. In 1987, NDSU posted a 44-8 mark en route to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Division II Championships, and went 43-3 in 1988, finishing third. She was named North Central Conference and regional Coach of the Year in both 1987 and 1988, as well as garnering NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year honors in 1988.

A 1985 graduate of Illinois State and four-year letterwinner in the volleyball program, George helped the Redbirds win three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. A team captain and crafty outside attacker, she was a three-time All-MVC selection who earned all-region honors.

George, who earned her master's degree in education from Central Michigan in 1987, resides in Okemos, with her husband Jerry, The couple has two sons: T.J., (a Michigan State graduate), and Conner, who currently attends the University and is a member of the men's basketball program.

- With a strength of schedule schedule ranked 19th nationally, the Spartans finished the 2016 season with a 25-9 overall record, and were 13-7 for a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten Conference. It is the most wins at MSU for a Cathy George-coached team both overall and Big Ten play. MSU is one of just three teams to finish .500 or better in Big Ten play in each of the last six years (along with Nebraska and Penn State).

- MSU was ranked 19th in the final AVCA poll.

- MSU won three of four non-conference Tournament titles, at San Diego State and Western Kentucky, and the Spartan Classic. Spartans earned a combined nine All-Tournament team nods, including three Tournament MVPs.

- MSU made its 19th overall NCAA Tournament appearance, and earned its sixth consecutive at-large bid to the Championship, the second-longest streak in school history.

- It was the ninth NCAA Tournament appearance in the 12-year tenure of current coach Cathy George. The Spartans earned the tournament's overall No. 9 seed, and hosted the first and second rounds of the 2016 NCAA Volleyball Championship at Jenison Field House.

- MSU led the Big Ten and is finished fourth nationally in service aces per set (1.91), and was third nationally with a total of 223 service aces on the season, which ranked fifth all time in a single season at MSU. Brooke Kranda (right) was sixth nationally in service aces per set (0.56) and her nine aces at Purdue shattered the school record for aces in a four-set match. MSU also ranked in the top 40 of NCAA Division I schools in blocks per set (2.48).

Michigan State and Michigan share a long history of rivalries in both academics and athletics. Beginning in 1990, the two state of Michigan Big Ten institutions began a "State Pride" season series to celebrate the in-state rivalry. A state of Michigan flag bearing the motto "Tuebor" or "I will defend," serves as a symbol of the volleyball rivalry with the winner of the season's face-to-face matches retaining possession of the flag for a year. The flag flew over the State Capitol on Sept. 18, 1990. In addition to the State flag, each school's winning year is listed on its half of a special Michigan State-Michigan banner.

- The school that wins both matches will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If teams split the matches, the school that wins the greatest number of games will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If both teams have won the same number of games, the school with the most total points is the "State Pride" winner.

DR. LOUANNA K. SIMON
UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Lou Anna K. Simon, the 20th president of Michigan State University, leads the university's work to advance the common good in Michigan and around the world. Simon earned her doctorate at Michigan State in 1974 and held a variety of administrative roles at the university, including assistant provost for general academic administration, associate provost, and provost and vice president for academic affairs. The MSU Board of Trustees appointed her president in January 2005.

As president, Simon has engaged Michigan State in a strategic and transformative journey to adapt the principles of its land-grant heritage to 21st-century challenges. Her initiatives in learning, research, and international engagement reflect MSU's commitment to applying knowledge to benefit society. She outlined these commitments and the philosophy behind them in her monograph, Embracing the World Grant Ideal: Affirming the Morrill Act for a Twenty-first-century Global Society.

Simon's vision includes building an inclusive and engaged academic community where every student graduates as a skilled and sought-after citizen-scholar. MSU's Student Success initiative is critical to that effort, and its outcomes are reflected in Michigan State's top standing for student engagement among public research universities.

With the support of external funding now exceeding $580 million annually, Simon helps ensure that MSU is making an enduring difference regionally and globally by finding solutions to the world's great challenges. She has expanded MSU's reach through its internationally regarded research in food, water, education and social sciences, engineering, and advanced physical sciences. She also leads its commitment to working at the forefront of emerging opportunities in areas such as bioengineering, medicine and genomics, advanced mobility, and computation.

Simon is a past chair and current board member of the Association of American Universities, a group of 62 leading U.S. and Canadian research universities. She is a member of the American Council on Education and, as a past chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Executive Committee, serves as an ex officio administrative committee member. She is a long-standing member of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board. Simon's activity in economic development has placed her on the Council on Competitiveness and the Business-Higher Education Forum, both national organizations focused on U.S. economic competitiveness and prosperity. She serves on the board of directors of Business Leaders for Michigan and is past chair of the Detroit Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. She also is an advisory committee member of the Detroit Innovation District, which promotes small business growth and job creation in the city.

Building on more than 50 years of development work and research in Africa by MSU faculty members, Simon is a member of the executive committee of the Partnership to Cut Hunger and Poverty in Africa and speaks to scholarly international gatherings about global food and development issues.

MARK HOLLIS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

"We gather and engage our community to teach, support and celebrate our student-athletes in their quest for excellence."

This is the vision Michigan State Athletics Director Mark Hollis has for Spartan Athletics. Hollis, who was named the 2012 Athletic Director of the Year by Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal/Daily, is in his 10th year leading the MSU Athletics Department. He officially assumed the role of MSU's 18th athletics director on Jan. 1, 2008, succeeding Ron Mason.

A 1985 MSU graduate, Hollis returned to his alma mater in 1995 as the associate athletics director for external relations. Since then, he has been a critical component of the athletic department executive management staff, helping guide the department through short- and long-range plans. In addition, Hollis spent five years on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee and served as the committee chair in 2016-17. He also was a former chair of the NCAA Division I Amateurism Cabinet and a former member of the NCAA's Men's Basketball Issues Committee.

Since his official appointment as athletics director began in 2008, Hollis has led one of the most successful periods in the history of Michigan State athletics. The Spartans have won one national championship (2014 women's cross country) and 30 Big Ten Championships (regular season and tournament), appeared in three Final Fours and eight bowl games, and own nine top-50 finishes in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup. In addition, during Hollis' tenure as an administrator at MSU, the Spartans have appeared in 20 consecutive men's basketball NCAA Tournaments – the longest streak in Big Ten history and the third-longest active streak in the nation – and seven Final Fours. The football team appeared in the 2015 College Football Playoff and has also won the Rose Bowl (2014) and Cotton Bowl (2015) in addition to three Big Ten titles in Hollis' tenure.

During Hollis' tenure, Michigan State student-athletes have excelled not only in competition, but in the classroom as well. For 13 consecutive semesters, Spartan student-athletes have posted better than a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average. More than 400 student-athletes (426) posted a cumulative GPA above 3.0 in the spring semester of 2017, marking the highest total in the history of the department for the spring, and 18 teams maintained a cumulative 3.0 GPA. The spring semester of 2017 also saw Spartan student-athletes compile both the highest spring term in program history (3.1009) and the highest cumulative grade-point average in department history at 3.1380. Additionally, 291 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors and 102 garnered Big Ten Distinguished Scholar accolades throughout the 2016-17 academic year. Furthermore, 315 student-athletes were honored at the 2017 SASS Academic Excellence Gala (student-athletes with at least a sophomore academic standing and a 3.0 or better cumulative GPA).

Eight teams advanced to their respective NCAA Championships in 2016-17, including the men's basketball team, which extended its NCAA Tournament streak to 20, the fourth-longest in NCAA history. The women's golf team won its fifth Big Ten title in the last decade to extend Michigan State's run of winning at least one Big Ten Championship to 21 consecutive years. Another six programs were represented by individuals at NCAA Championship events.

Hollis' vision of the entire athletics administration working in the same building will come true this fall as the Michigan State Athletic Department moves into the brand new 1855 Place on Harrison Road, across the street from the Breslin Center. The mixed-use 102,000-square-foot office building, which also houses MSU Residential and Hospitality Services, will include administration, athletic communications, business office, compliance, sales and marketing, Spartan Fund and the Spartan Ticket Office.

Numerous Olympic sports have also seen their facilities upgraded on campus. On June 1, 2016, the Lasch Family Golf Center, the new 15,000-square-foot home of the MSU men's and women's golf teams, was officially dedicated. The $6 million facility includes an indoor practice area, student-athlete lounge, men's and women's locker rooms, coaches' offices, video room, weight room and a kitchen area featuring nutrition/hydration stations. In addition, more than $6 million has been spent on updates to Munn Ice Arena since 2014, including new video boards, chairback seating, concourse improvement and ice improvements.

Hollis was named the associate athletics director for external relations at Michigan State in November 1995. He coordinated marketing and promotions, community relations, special-event fundraising, sports information, ticket operations, spirit groups, broadcast services and corporate sponsorships. He received the National Marketer of the Year Award by NACMA in May 2002.

Prior to returning to Michigan State, Hollis spent two years at the University of Pittsburgh as assistant and associate athletic director. Before his stint at Pitt, Hollis worked for the Western Athletic Conference. He joined the WAC as an administrative assistant immediately after college. Two years later, he was appointed assistant to the commissioner and soon thereafter was promoted to assistant commissioner.

Hollis earned his bachelor of arts degree in communication from Michigan State in 1985, where he served as a basketball team manager under Jud Heathcote. In 1992, he earned his MBA in business administration from the University of Colorado. He and his wife Nancy, have a daughter, Katy, and two sons, T.R. and Michael.

The Michigan State volleyball team has played nearly all of its home matches in historic Jenison Field House since 1993. Built in 1940, Jenison was the home of Spartan basketball until 1989 and is where Magic Johnson helped lead Michigan State to its first NCAA Championship in 1979.

Jenison, which is currently the home to the Spartan athletic department administrative offices as well as MSU volleyball, women's gymnastics, wrestling and men's and women's track & field, underwent extensive renovations in 2001. The volleyball facilities were improved to include a large new locker room, an expanded training room, a larger weight room and an improved equipment room. The building also houses locker rooms for baseball, women's rowing, soccer and softball.

For volleyball, the court runs north-south in the historic field house, and accommodates 5,017 fans in its courtside, reserved (chairback) and general-admission (bleacher) seating. Prior to the start of the 2011 season, MSU renovated Jenison Field House by installing retractable bleachers around the entire floor, featuring chair-back seating on the east and west ends. Jenison also received facelift with and new banners in the rafters and new lights. In addition, a state-of-the-art video board was installed on the north end of the building, allowing for instant highlights and pre-match announcements for all Jenison events. The sound system in Jenison received updated equipment to better serve the teams which compete in the facility.

The most recent updates in the facility came in 2014, as the volleyball locker room was renovated with new lockers and a new projector for film study in the volleyball locker room. These upgrades were possible thanks to generous gifts of several donors.

For the first time since 2003, MSU hosted NCAA Tournament matches last December, welcoming Fairfield, Cleveland State, and Arizona to East Lansing for the first and second rounds of Tournament play. MSU also hosted NCAA tournament matches in 1995, 1996, 1998 and 2003. Jenison Field House features a wooden playing surface that saw its first action during the 2005 season.

The Spartan Side Out Club, the official booster club of Spartan volleyball, runs apparel sales at each home game to help raise funds for the MSU volleyball program. Kids Club members line the court on match day and provide support for the Spartans at Jenison.

MSU has annually broken attendance records over the last five seasons, but those attendance figures reached an all-time high in 2016. MSU's match vs.

Michigan on Nov. 11 brought 6.838 fans into the arena. This was not only a facility record for volleyball, but also improved upon the program record of 6,824 that came to the Breslin Center to cheer on the volleyball tteam against Michigan in November of 2010. Last year's crowd vs. the Wolverines is believed to be the largest non-men's basketball crowd to take in a Spartan sporting event in Jenison Field House.

The 2016 season was also the 21st consecutive season that Michigan State appeared in the top 25 nationally in attendance. For the second straight year, and the fifth time in program history, the Spartans were ranked sixth nationally in average attendance, welcoming an average of 2,994 fans per match, a new school record. MSU's overall attendance of 53,895 fans over the course of the season shattered the previous record of 43,918, established in 2014.

The Spartans are anticipating another season of record attendance in 2017, as there has been an increase of 30% in season ticket sales from 2016, establishing another program record for season tickets sold for a season. Fans will be treated to 13 regular-season home matches in 2017,: In addition to the 10-game Big Ten home schedule that will bring Penn State, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Ohio State, and Northwestern to Jenison Field House. Over Labor Day weekend, MSU will once again host the Auto-Owners Insurance Spartan Invitational, which will bring San Diego State, Marshall, and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi to town.

The volleyball locker room received updated lockers in the spring of 2014, and provides student-athletes with a place to watch game film, as well as prepare for practice and matches.

Several generous donors contributed to the locker room upgrades which were completed in the spring of 2014.
